Oak View resident to perform with ballet

Ventura County Ballet's (VCB) premier pre-professional dance company, DAnce ART, will feature its elite, young, local dancers and invited professionals to perform alongside instrumentalist and composer Rachel Flowers at the historic Masonic Center in Ventura Sunday.

Oak View resident Roxey Newman will be among those performing, including professionals from State Street Ballet. Newman was recently accepted into Department of Ballet, University of Utah, one of the best dance programs in the country.

Pianist, composer and Ventura County resident Rachel Flowers, will accompany the dancers. Flowers, who performed recently in a free concert at Libbey

Bowl, lost her eyesight as an infant due to Retinopathy of Prematurity (ROP). She will perform an original composition, "At The End Of The Day," and "Malambo" by Alberto Ginestera.

A reception begins at 2 p.m. and the performance will start at 2:30 p.m.

The Masonic Center is at 482 E. Santa Clara St. in Ventura.
